Yom Kippur Afternoon Contemporary Issues

The Contemporary Issues discussion on Yom Kippur afternoon will be from 2:45 to 4:15 PM in Bess P. Maltz Center. No tickets are required. The haftarah that we read on Yom Kippur morning, from the Book of Isaiah, challenges us to make real in our lives the values that we study throughout the day. Therefore, we will again spend the afternoon exploring contemporary social issues. Details will be forthcoming.

Opening Doors: Sharing Stories of Our Lives

From 4:30 to 5:30 PM, on Yom Kippur afternoon, at the same time as the afternoon Torah service, this is an opportunity for congregants to share stories of their own wrestlings with what brings meaning to their lives and what keys unlocked important doors along their journeys. Facilitated by Rabbi Geller and Rabbinic Intern Jill Zimmerman, no tickets required, Harrison Chapel.

Afternoon Torah Service

From 4:30 to 5:30 PM, on Yom Kippur afternoon, at the same time as Opening Doors: Sharing Stories of Our Lives. The afternoon Torah portion is Kedoshim. The Torah reading will be followed by a dramatic reading of the haftarah, the Book of Jonah. Gates of Repentance, tickets required, Sanctuary.

Neilah / Havdalah

From 5:45 to 7:00 PM, on Yom Kippur afternoon, these concluding services are geared to adults. Gates of Repentance, tickets required, children under 13 not admitted, Sanctuary.

As always, the Book of Memory will be used at every Yizkor service throughout the year.
